had to resort to the lathi charge and arrest 15 students of the Annamalai University on 30th March 1958. After hearing the Hon. Minister for Education, I am satisfied that they do not involve more than the ordinary administration of law. It has been ruled in this Assembly on previous occasions, e.g., on 15th July 1953, that arrest of persons and lathi charge do not involve more than the ordinary administration of law. I therefore feel that under the rules, the motions cannot be allowed and I therefore do not give permission for moving the adjournment motions.

Also the hon. Members Sri T. S. Ramaswamy Pillai and Sri A. V. P. Asaithambi have given notice of motions under rule 40. In view of the statement of the Hon. Minister for Education, I rule those motions also out of order.

I adjourn the House till 8-30 to-morrow morning.

1-57 p.m. The House then adjourned.
